Framework REF Y23031

Who we are

- Since 1996, Intertranslations has become a leading translation service provider with offices in London, Athens, and Paris.
- Our expertise covers legal, financial, life sciences, sports betting, manufacturing, marketing sectors, and services for government, public sectors, and NGOs/IGOs.
- Our clientele ranges from premier international firms and global financial institutions to SMEs. We are honoured to serve as an official contractor for the European Parliament, European Commission, European Court of Justice, European Central Bank, European Medicines Agency, and the United Nations.

Our core values

People-Centred

We are committed to people, prioritising human connections and understanding in all our endeavours.

Exemplary Customer Service

Our dedication to providing unparalleled customer service is steadfast.

Technological Innovation

We are committed to adopting technological advancements to enhance our services and offer state-of-the-art solutions.

Future-Oriented

Our focus is firmly on the future, constantly aiming to anticipate and surpass the expectations of our clients and the industry.

Why we're different

Extensive Experience

Our wealth of experience since 1996 enables us to adeptly manage complex projects for multinational corporations, European Union bodies, and large NGOs.

Linguistic Excellence

Our team comprises only native translators who undergo strict evaluations and are frequently trained, ensuring unparalleled linguistic proficiency.

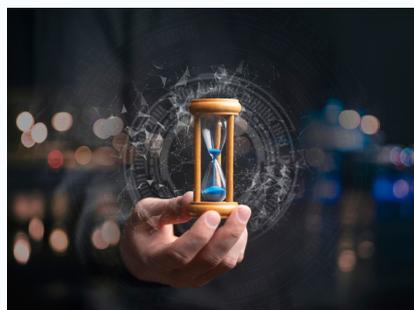

Unrivalled Quality Assurance

We possess all necessary accreditations for security, confidentiality, and translation-specific certifications, supported by a 10 million GBP indemnity insurance policy.

Advanced Technological Use

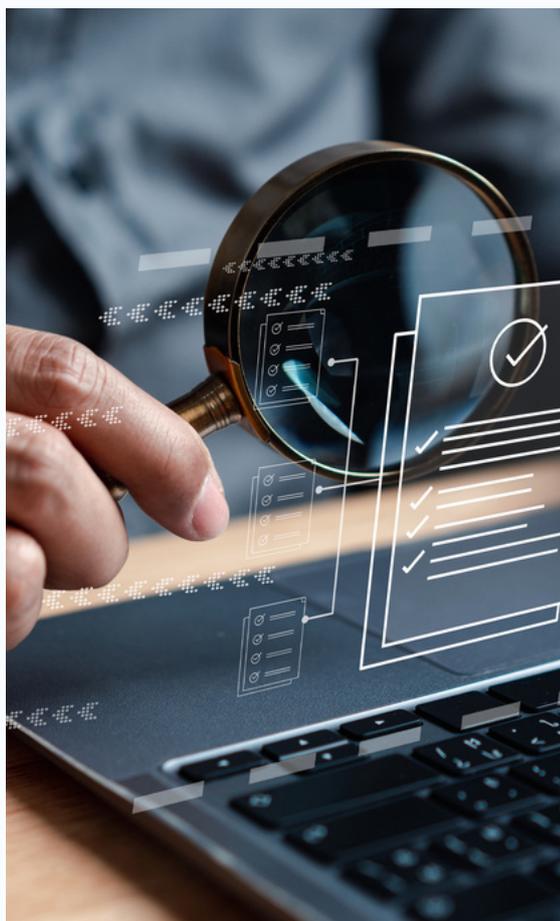

Through the application of machine translation, translation memories, and bespoke glossaries, we utilise technology to enhance accuracy and efficiency.

On-time Delivery

Our Translation Management System and Single Point of Contact (SPoC) policy ensure deadlines are consistently met, showcasing our commitment to punctuality.

Quality is our priority

Our dedication to superior quality is underscored by numerous international certifications in quality and data safety.
